An Interesting Week at the Academy of Music.

Masquerades, Bails, Parties and Weddings

From Saturday Evening's DEE, Among the pleasant entertainments which have taken place during the part week the pricate masquerade party under the management of Mr. I. Ed. Smith, at Masenic Hall, last night, deserves special mention, Mr. Smith's ability and success as a manager was established years ago and he hold his own all the time. Notwithstanding the execrabic condition of the streets and the discouraging state of the weather the attendance last night was good, and the party passed off in the most sociable manuer imaginable. Hetzel and Tryine, musical caterors, furnished the music, while Mr. Smith acted as prompter, to the satisfaction of all. Dancing continued after unrassking until a late hour.

TEMPERANCE HES BIYS. The mosting last evening was largey attended, considering the dreadful ondition of the streets. The exercises commenced with vocal and in strumental music, followed by reading the ecriptures and prayer by the Rev. Dr. Paugher, who then deliverad a very excellent and appropriate address, which was devoid of the upcommouplace anecdotes, with which temperance lectures are siways interspersed. He domonstrated very clearly the true fundamental principles upon which all temperance accieties abould work, and closed his interesting and instructive address, by beautifully illustrating "home in-
